VICTOR MONTGOMERY MET SUDDEN DEATH

PIONEER JURIST OF COUNTY IS DEAD

Apoplexy Cause of Demise of Well-Known Santa Ana
Last Night

HE CAME TO THIS SECTION IN 1875

Daughter Gertrude Was With Him When He Passed
Away at Inn

Attorney Victor Montgomery, pioneer lawyer and horticulturist and president of the Bar Association of Orange County, died suddenly at Huntington Beach last night between 10 and 11 o'clock, of apoplexy.

For nearly a week past Attorney Montgomery had not been feeling well. Last Monday when in court he stated to Judge West that he was not well enough to go on with the Overacker trial. Tuesday he went to Huntington Beach to appear at the arraignment of D. O. Stewart, and that he might have a few days' rest he decided to stay at the beach for several days, preparatory to beginning the Overacker trial next Monday. His daughter, Miss Gertrude Montgomery, was with him.

Yesterday he seemed to be feeling quite well, and last evening he ate heartily.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock he left his daughter, saying he would go to bed and read awhile.

A little later Miss Montgomery found her father coughing peculiarly, and she went to his room to see if he was ill. She found him collapsed, lying across the bed. He told her he was very ill. Miss Montgomery immediately called up Dr. Gordon at Santa Ana, who started immediately for Huntington Beach. Mrs. Montgomery and her son, Tarver, following in their automobile. Mr. Montgomery lived but ten or fifteen minutes after Miss Montgomery returned to his room, dying before the physician arrived.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the residence at 210 East Walnut street.

Victor Montgomery was born on April 28, 1846, at Nashville, Tenn. where his father was one of the best known and wealthiest men of the state. When the Civil War broke out father and son burned over $1,000,000 worth of their cotton to keep it from falling into the hands of the Union. When 16 years of age Victor Montgomery enlisted in the Southern cavalry, and during the latter part of the war was a scout for Gen. Nathan B. Forrest. During the battle of Greenville, Tenn., the young soldier was captured, and was taken aboard a transport going up the Mississippi river. He jumped from the boat, reached shore and rejoined his command.

After the war he attended the University of Mississippi at Corinth, and later studied law under the noted jurist, Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar. In 1875, with his parents, Victor Montgomery moved to California and settled at Anaheim, later moving to Santa Ana. Since the days he came here a pioneer, Attorney Montgomery was a leader at the bar and in political circles, maintaining his faith as a Democrat. To him belonged the distinction of writing the original bill providing for the creation of Orange county.

Victor Montgomery was prominent in many enterprises and circles outside of his profession. He developed a number of ranches, and was one of the foremost horticulturists of the county. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Santa Ana, and on a number of occasions was elected a trustee of the church.

He leaves his widow, one son, Tarver, and two daughters, Miss Gertrude and Miss Louise. His nephew, B. E. Tarver, was his law partner.

BRYAN ISSUES REBELLION CHALLENGE TO TAFT SPREADING IN CHINA

Calls On President To Show
Reasons For Appointing
Federal Justices

NAMES JUSTICE WHITE
AND JUSTICE HUGHES

Declares Taft Owes People
Sources of Influences
For Appointments

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 19.—Reiterating his challenge to President Taft to make public the influences securing the appointment of Chief Justice White of the Federal Supreme Court, William J. Bryan says in part today in his publication, "The Commoner": "President Taft, you appointed Chief Justice White who, thirteen years ago, took the trust side in a trust question. You appointed him over the head of Justice Harlan, who had served longer and with more distinction, and who had taken the people's side on the trust and other questions. "Who asked you to give a trust Democrat preference over an anti-trust Republican?" Make public the recommendations, written or verbal, which Justice White received and which were transmitted to you. Let the people know the influence dictating your appointments.

"You appointed Charles J. Hughes as justice after he had interpreted your platform to suit the trusts, and he proceeded to join White, and fulfill your promise to amend the anti-trust law by weakening it. "Publish the written or verbal recommendations upon which you appointed Hughes. Let the people see how many trust magnates united to secure his appointment."

Rebels Massacre Manchus In Every City Falling Into Their Hands

HANKOW AND HANG SPANG
REEK WITH SLAUGHTER

Yang Tse Valley From Hankow To Shanghai Captured
By the Rebels

SHANGHAI, Oct. 19.—The rebellion is spreading. It is reported that every man, woman and child in the Manchu section were butchered when the rebels captured Wuchang, and it also is believed similar slaughters occurred in every city the rebels have attacked.

HANKOW AND HANG YANG

SCENES OF BUTCHERY

TOKIO, Oct. 19.—Dispatches today from Shanghai say that refugees from Wuchang, arriving today declare that men, women and children of the Manchu race have been massacred there by the rebels and that the cities of Hankow and Hang Yang, which have suffered similarly, are veritable abattoirs. Kiu Kiang, is also said to have fallen. All the Yang Tse valley, from Hankow to Shanghai have been captured by the rebels, the refugees state. A few of the larger cities which have not surrendered are on the verge of capitulation today, with provincial officials and available troops besieged.

Consuls at Hankow gave directions for the transportation of many foreigners to Shanghai on the steamer Adriatic. Five other steamers, carrying Chinese refugees, have also arrived there crowded.

VICTORY CLAIMED BY

BOTH SIDES OF BATTLE

PEKING, Oct. 19.—All communication with Hankow was suddenly broken off today, and it is rumored that the Imperial forces have suffered a crushing defeat. Serious disaffection in the army is believed to have culminated in a large part of the troops going over to the Rebels.

THOUSANDS OF TINY TROUT ARE PUT IN STREAMS

Thousands of tiny trout were planted in the streams of Orange county yesterday. Hilton Parker took four trucks to the Santa Ana. J. W. Tubbs distributed four cans in the Trabuco and Frank Porter two cans in the San Juan. Owing to the fact that a part of the San Juan canyon is shut off by private parties from the general use by the public, the fish deputy from Los Angeles would allow but two cans for the San Juan to be distributed from the Springs down.

In getting the trout, the game commissioners had considerable difficulty with the Santa Fe, which this year would not allow a man to go into the baggage car to care for the fish. The fish car had to be brought down. W. K. Robinson, deputy game commissioner, saw that the fish were handed over to those who distributed them.

Fat—A Body Requisite

The popular view of the close connection between fat and good nature and weight and balance is not wholly without rational foundation. Fat, unpleasant and stodgy as it is, is one of the most valuable tissues in the human body, and any man who reduces his share of it below a certain reasonable level, not only takes the smooth edge off his temper and balance of his powers of judgment, but exposes all of his higher tissues, notably the muscular, nervous and secretory, to danger of both starvation and disease. A moderate cushion of fat is one of the best buffers and bucklers against the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune," whether in the form of disease or in strains upon endurance. The man who makes himself into a lean and hungry Casius, even with the best of intentions, is very apt to get himself into a state of both mind and body where he is more fit for treason, stratagem and spoils than for comfort, wholesomeness and a happy life.—Outing.

EXPECT LEMON RATE WILL BE CUT AGAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—There is every indication here today that the $1 transportation rate on lemons will be restored by the interstate commerce commission when the citrus fruit case comes up for hearing here November 15.

The case will be heard upon the original pleadings and upon any further evidence that the fruit growers and railroad men may introduce.

NAVY MOBILIZATION FOR DOUBLE PURPOSE

Fleets Will Assemble on Both Coasts at Same Time to Show Quality and Preparedness

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Just why the greatest mobilization of American naval strength ever planned, is to occur at the end of this month on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, was explained today by Secretary of the Navy George von L. Meyer, in a statement to the United Press.

(By George von L. Meyer, Secretary of the Navy, Copyright 1911, by United Press Association.)

"On October 31 and November 1, there will be mobilization in New York harbor, for the inspection and review of the most powerful aggregation of fighting ships ever assembled under an American flag. Rear Admiral Osterhaus will have under his immediate command one hundred and two warships, ranging from the great dreadnaughts, to the tiny submarines. At the same time the entire strength of the Pacific fleet will be assembled under the command of Rear Admiral Thomas at Los Angeles harbor.

"The purpose of this mobilization, almost unprecedented in American naval history is twofold. Primarily, it will show the fleets' preparedness in personnel and material. I have sought to impress upon the country the fact that the fleet is the navy, the navy is the fleet, and that all else is auxiliary. Therefore it is my purpose to do all I can to develop the fleet as a highly organized, self-sustaining, efficient and potential sea fighting power. The mobilization was ordered with the comparatively short notice of less than thirty days. The ships were scattered after a year of hard work, and many were undergoing repairs. Making all the ships ready for this great assembly, will be a splendid test of their ability and organization to answer requirements which may be imposed upon them in case of emergency.

"Secondarily, the mobilization is for the benefit of the nation. I want to bring the navy close to the people, and I want as many citizens as possible to see the fleet assembled at its greatest strength. People pay for the navy cheerfully. I think they will be even more willing to concede its value, when they see what a tremendous potential fighting power it is, with its assurance for peace. It is due the nation that it be shown what the navy really is."

TIGAL WAVE AGAIN FLOODS IN MEXICO

Two Towns Said Destroyed—
Great Storm Also Visited
West Mexican Coast

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—Another tidal wave is reported today to have destroyed San Blas and Sihuatenango, towns in the State of Tepic, having a population of two thousand and five thousand, respectively. Communication with Tepic has been severed. Many are reported dead in the two towns.

RETURNING STEAMER GIVES

NO NEWS OF BIG STORM

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 19.—When the American-Hawaiian freighter "Columbian" arrived today, six days out from Salina Cruz, her officers were eagerly questioned about reports of another storm on the West Mexican coast. The "Columbian," however, had experienced no bad weather, and had heard of none recently.

FIERCE STORM REPORTED

FOR WEST MEXICAN COAST

TUCSON, Ariz., Oct. 19.—A second destructive storm swept over the west coast of Mexico Tuesday night. Rain had been descending twelve hours when the wires went down at midnight, and communication between Randolph offices in Tucson and the headquarters of the Southern Pacific in Mazatlan was cut off.

Reports up to that time stated the end of the Commercial wharf had been damaged and that eight ships in the harbor had been driven upon the beach.

There was no report of loss of life or damage in either Mazatlan or Culiacan. Telegraphic communication was not restored until late yesterday afternoon.

Additional reports state a schooner, besides the sailing vessels, was dashed ashore at Mazatlan, and the property damage in the city will amount to at least $250,000.

WICKERSHAM IN LINE FOR BENCH

President Taft Said To Favor
Him Strongly To Succeed
Justice Harlan

NO PROGRESSIVE LIKELY TO WIN COVETED HONOR

Taft Believes Atty. General's Record In Trust Cases Will Make Him Acceptable

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 19.—Attorney General Wickersham looms up on the political horizon today as the most likely candidate for the Supreme Court, to succeed the late Justice Harlan.

Out of a long list of eligibles which President Taft began considering today for appointment, Wickersham seemed the favorite.

President Taft declined to discuss the appointment for publication but it has been learned here that there is only a remote possibility of a Progressive receiving the place. In the list being considered, the only name which could be considered as that of a Progressive is that of Walter Fisher, secretary of the interior, whose chances are very poor.

While President Taft realizes that the appointment of Wickersham might possibly provoke criticism because of his former Wall Street connection, he believes the Attorney General's recent fine record as a prosecutor and dissolver of trusts will over-balance this criticism. The President has a very high opinion of Wickersham's legal abilities and many of his advisors strongly favor getting the present Attorney General out of the cabinet. President Taft will make a fixed decision as to his choice when he reaches Washington.

FOOT OF SNOW ON BUTTE

STREETS GREETED PRESIDENT

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 19.—Snow-clad hills and a frost-laden atmosphere today welcomed President Taft from the sunny orange groves of California, where he spent the past five days. There was a foot of snow on the streets of Butte, when the Presidential train pulled in.

The President hurried to the Silver Bow hotel for breakfast and later automobilized through the city. An address from the Broadway theater completed his visit here and he was off for a visit to Bozeman, Livingston and Billings, Mont., which completes today's program.

LYMAN OFFERED BRIBE TO JAILER TO AID IN ESCAPE

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 19.—Night Jailer Dave Fuller of Multnomah county jail today reported that Dr. John Grant Lyman, the alleged swindler, who was captured in Oregon while attempting to escape from California, offered him $2500 cash last night to allow him to escape from jail, and in addition promised him $1000 if he succeeded in reaching Vancouver, B. C. Officials are investigating to ascertain where Lyman proposed to raise the sum, as only $255 was found on him, when he was searched. It is believed one of Lyman's wealthy friends is planning to aid him make a getaway.

Lyman will leave for San Francisco tonight in the custody of Federal Marshal Beatty. Lyman is to face trial for using the mails to defraud.

Strauss Has New Orchestral

Richard Strauss is writing a new orchestral work to be called "An Alpine Symphony." The development of the motives parallels the journeys of an Alpine climber, who hies to the mountains to be away from the cares of the world.

Musical description is to be given of the characteristics of the ascent, a waterfall, a deep gorge and a mountain thunder storm. At the summit the climber raises his voice in praise of the splendors of Alpine scenery.

The descent is occupied with the struggle in the wanderer's heart between the feeling of Nature alone and the higher feeling for the divine, each feeling being represented by its own melody.

Finally the melody of faith dominates the other, and the symphony concludes with a hymn praise to God.

Talks On Tailoring

It may sound like an "old, old story," but we propose to keep on telling it, because it's a good story and true.

That is—that we make good clothes cheap. They cost you no more than good ready-mades and are better—have more individuality and a better fit—they are made for YOU, exclusively. They conform in dropping (or "hang") to YOUR physical proportions. The turn of a lapel or the placing of a button, or the size of the trousers leg, or the exact shape at the shoe top—any and all of these points conform to YOUR requirements.

Note the necessity for these details: One man's instep is higher than another's—trousers cut at bottom to conform; one man's chest full and another's hollow—coat draped accordingly—same as to long and short necks—and so on.

Try us for good merchant-tailored garments at right prices.

An echo from the Kansas Tin Shop

When we had paid all the demands of the state, county and city in the way of taxes and found that there was left something for bread and butter, we smiled again.

Shortly after that last smile, we were apprised that, for the privilege of selling hardware we must pay the city a special tax and of course there was no good thing to come from a kick, so we paid the tax and smiled again!

It having become known that we are plumbers as well as hardware dealers, we were informed that we must put up for a plumber's license and must give a good and sufficient bond that nobody should suffer loss because of any ill constructed plumbing job—so we smiled again because we thought that no further load would be piled on our backs, but we soon found that we were again mistaken and that "another ordinance required that for every job of plumbing we would do we must first take out a "permit" for that particular job and that we must pay about two dollars more and if the contract called for putting in a gas pipe the inspector must be notified and his fee must be paid, and when, after due inquiry we found that nothing had been overlooked and that we had satisfied every demand and had enough left to buy SOME MORE bread (having concluded that butter was an unnecessary luxury). We smiled again and slept sweetly, thinking the "end had now come," but,

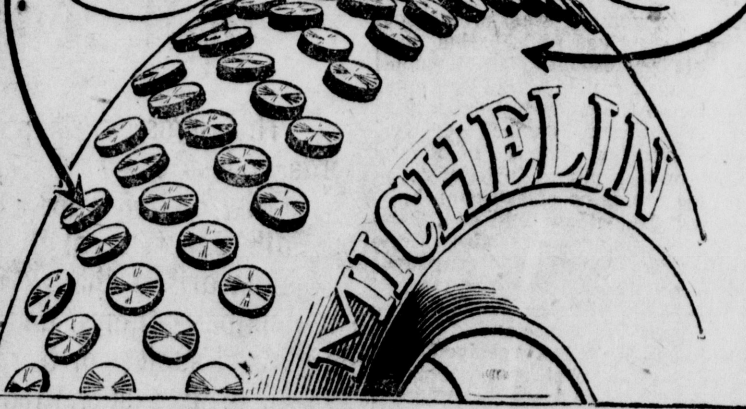

Shortly thereafter, we were rudely awakened, and we will tell about that tomorrow.

STANTON, Oct. 19.—A brief meeting of the city trustees was held at the city hall in Stanton on Monday evening. An ordinance fixing the salary of the city clerk was passed.

J. L. McBride, city engineer, was out from Santa Ana to confer with the board in regard to securing title from the Stearns Ranches Co. to certain highways, which the company will furnish at nominal expense to the city. He was instructed to secure deeds to all streets within the city limits.

The next meeting of the trustees will be Monday evening, Oct. 23. There is a favorable prospect for the organization of beet growers in this locality to co-operate with the

WALTER JOHNSON TO REMAIN IN KANSAS

Anaheim Gazette: Walter Johnson, Washington's star pitcher, will not come to California this winter, as has been generally supposed for some weeks past. His brother, Leslie Johnson, was in from Olinda on Monday and said Walter would probably spend the winter in Kansas, where he and his father invested in a ranch last year. Johnson will discard winter ball, as he is of the opinion it interferes with his pitching arm. He will rest during the winter, and will join the Senators again next spring.

TEACHERS MET WITH PARENTS

Large Attendance at Meeting
Held at Commercial High School Yesterday

The large room in the commercial high school building was completely filled yesterday with parents who answered the call of the committee who had the meeting in charge. The committee was Miss Everett, Mrs. Gould and Mrs. J. A. Cranston. Miss Everett presided and called the meeting to order at 3 p.m. The first on the program was a song by high school girls.

Prof. Bartlett spoke on the subject of "Open Sessions." He said that during the year and a half that he had been principal of the high school there had not been a person visited the high school for the purpose of being present during a recitation. Parents had visited the schools for other purposes. He enumerated the different branches of work that had been enlarged on and the teachers would welcome the parents at any time. Prof. Bartlett thought that by announcing a certain day for open sessions, the parents would take advantage of the opportunity and visit the high school. The co-operation of parents and teachers is desired and they are welcome to come at any time.

Mrs. Z. B. West and Mrs. C. W. Burns led in the discussion, which was followed by a number of others.

Little Edna Ward and Nellie Larson of Central school, sang so sweetly and so appropriately at this time. "Parents Do Not Visit the Schools."

Miss Hinkston, instructor in the Domestic Science Department of the grades and high school, read a splendid and practical paper on that subject. Miss Hinkston gave an outline of what work was accomplished during the year in the cooking, sewing and millinery departments. This is the first year the high school has taken up this work, and lack of room limits the number. Mrs. George Heil opened the discussion by reading a splendid paper. Mrs. Grubb made a

OLIVE INDUSTRY TO SHOW BIG INCREASE

The olive and olive oil industry of California this year will show an increase of 15 per cent over 1910. It will be one of the greatest years both in the production and in the marketing of olives in the history of the state. Against last year's output of 800,000 gallons of olive oil this year's total will be 920,000 gallons, an increase of 120,000 gallons. One million gallons of pickled olives was the crop of 1910. This year will show an increase of 150,000 gallons. The crop of 1910 is valued at $2,200,000 while the 1911 crop will bring the growers in about $2,500,000. With the announcement of this gratifying change in the olive industry of California comes the revelation that more olive trees were planted this year than at all the past eight years, and that California now faces the brightest future in the production of olives of any part of the world.

In 1903 growers were receiving as low as $15 per ton for first class olives. The great eastern market was deluged with Spanish and Italian olive oils, which for the most part were adulterated with cotton seed oil and other low grade substances. That was before the pure food law protected the California olive grower, who was always producing the pure article. In the face of such unfair competition the California grower found it impossible to place his pure product on the market and secure a fair price for it, as foreign adulterated oils were selling at shamefully low prices. The natural result was discouraging to those interested in the industry in California. Prices went down so low that the growers could make no money, and some went so far as to dig out their trees.

PEACE TO HIS ASHES!

In the death of Judge Victor Montgomery Santa Ana and Orange county and California lose a distinguished and valuable citizen. His death was a surprise and a shock to this community, for it was sudden and unexpected.

For many years Judge Montgomery was the leader of the bar of Orange county, and a front-rank lawyer of the state. Not only this, but he was a leading citizen in the fullest and most real sense of that much-abused term. Of late years he has been less active, owing to somewhat impaired health, but even unto the day of his untimely death he was a force and power in the community—a man of commanding talents and personality.

In addition to his signal position at the bar, Judge Montgomery was a man of large property interests and important affairs. Having lived for many years in Orange county, he has been identified with its growth and development, and a potent factor in shaping its character and destiny.

Socially and personally Judge Montgomery was a man of distinction and charm. He was a Southern gentleman of polished manners, kindly disposition, high honor and large culture.

Peace to his ashes!

THEY SPELL PROSPERITY

Bankers are keen business men, and they know prosperity when they see it. If anyone has any doubt as to the high degree of prosperity maintained in Orange county let him look upon the Orange county banks. In Santa Ana it is but a couple of years since the old reliable First National enlarged its elegant banking home. Then came the consolidation of the Farmers & Merchants National with the pioneer Commercial, and the making over of the building into the fine quarters now occupied by the Farmers & Merchants, in the front rank. At about the same time the California National was organized and the handsome building at the corner of Bush and Fourth streets erected for its business, substantial and extensive from the start. A few months ago, W. A. Zimmerman, a business man from the ground up, bought into the Orange County Savings Bank, and with the reorganization of that bank came the making of plans, now being carried out, for a greater and a more useful institution.

From every city in the county comes word of better banking facilities and huge increases in deposits. This week a new national bank opened its doors at the new town of Placentia in the northern end of the county. Last week, a new bank, just organizing, leased quarters at Tustin, and soon that community will have a banking institution of its own.

Deposits are the life of a bank, and from the condition of the banks of this county it is easy to determine that their deposits are enormous. They spell prosperity. They mean that the orange, sugar beet, walnut and lemon growers and all the growers of all the other scores of crops that bring money into Orange county from abroad are making money.

"SPEED VERSUS COURTESY"

Under this heading, Helen Lukens Gant, in Sunset Magazine discusses the question of "road etiquette" for autoists. Or, rather, she simply raises the question.

"While we had nothing serious happen on the trip, and at no time were in need of help," she says, describing a motor run from Los Angeles to San Francisco, "we often stopped * * * to water and oil the Meadow Lark and adjust the machinery, just as a wise precaution. Usually, during our stops, from one to six autos would hurry past, covering us with dirt, never so much as slowing up a trifle to inquire if we were in trouble. In fact, during the entire trip of approximately one thousand miles, only two auto parties stopped and offered us assistance. In our hearts we blessed them for their courtesy. Either there is no such thing as road 'etiquette' or the party in trouble is expected to 'holler' for help if he needs it. Sometimes a patch, a little oil, gasoline, cement, or perhaps an experienced suggestion as to what the 'matter' is, will save the day for some puzzled autoist and start him on his way rejoicing. Automobiles are creatures of temperament, of emotions and peculiarities, and it requires tact and understanding to keep them in good humor."

While it wouldn't do any autoist any harm, and would be an act of gracious courtesy to stop, or at least slow up and inquire if help is needed by an auto party on the roadside, we do not think a charge of discourtesy or worse can lie against anyone for not doing so. If help is needed it is the easiest thing in the world for the one in need to signal an approaching autoist to stop, and ninety-nine times out of a hundred he will do so and render gladly any assistance in his power. In the absence of a signal to stop it is fair to presume that help is not needed.

Kern county has a stirring anti-saloon campaign on. A vote will be taken in all five of the supervisor districts on October 31 and the anti-saloon forces are making a great fight. Dr. Chapman is canvassing the county and among other strong speakers secured are Lieut. Gov. Wallace and Assemblyman Wylie who was the author of the local option bill. Unfortunately the women of the county will not be able to vote at this election.

The assessed valuation of Redlands is $8,977,180. This is a gain of close to $575,000 in spite of a loss of $580,000 on account of the adoption of Amendment No. 1.

OSTEOPATHY

The science of osteopathy is legalized by over half the states in the union, and yet many persons have only a vague idea of the practice. Perhaps the greatest misconception is that the osteopathic physician rubs his patients. If you have ever had such a treatment, and thought you were getting an osteopathic treatment, you were deceived. Osteopathy is not massage any more than a surgeon setting a dislocated hip or shoulder is giving massage. Nor is it faith cure, the only faith required is that the physician knows his business, but above all it is not rubbing. It is adjustment. The whole science is based upon that one principle. If all the tissues of the body are in proper relation one to the other, then the vital fluids and forces of the body are free and unobstructed in their work and there is health. The moment some of these vital forces are interfered with, or obstructed so they cannot work, that moment marks the beginning of disease. Can I make this plainer? If we impinge upon an artery we partially shut off the flow of blood through it, and the tissues that artery supplies grow weak through lack of nutrition. If we obstruct a vein the poisonous material and broken down waste matter passing through that vein will be thrown back into the system. If we put pressure upon a nerve the function of that nerve is interfered with. Isn't this perfectly plausible? Now what is the logical treatment? Shall we drive these vital forces to work in spite of the obstructions? Or shall we by gentle manipulation remove the obstruction and let nature go to work? I wonder that every one who is at all familiar with the workings of the human body is not a firm believer in osteopathic treatment. Surely it is the most reasonable and most scientific of all the methods of healing. But rubbing would do no good. Certainly no internal remedy could remove a mechanical irritation or impingement. They might stimulate the vital forces to increased action for a time, but the effect could only be temporary. Is it not a fact that in almost every home is some chronic sufferer, haven't they taken almost every remedy, kind friends and earnest, honest physicians can think of. Often with slight improvement at first, only to again and again relapse into the old condition. Why is it? Simply this, the remedy did not locate and remove the primary cause of the trouble. This is what the osteopath claims to do. He is the machinist of the human body. He more than any other physician in the world should be a thorough anatomist for his whole science is built upon anatomy. The secret of osteopathic success lies right here. The practitioners of this school have been able to take cases that were called hopeless by other schools of healing and cure them, simply by locating and removing the obstructions that were preventing the vital forces from doing their work. I believe there are dozens of people in this vicinity who are suffering from some slight derangement that would yield quickly to this treatment. I know there must be many who would gladly take the treatment if they were not afraid it would be just another failure. There are perhaps others who do not thoroughly understand the work, and do not care to go to further expense for experiments—to all of these I have a special proposition to make which I feel sure will appeal to them as perfectly fair, and which will give an opportunity to give osteopathy a thorough trial at very little expense. I shall be very glad to talk with any who are in earnest, and are sincerely seeking health.

I will give each case a very thorough, careful examination and tell them honestly just what they may expect from the treatment. I make no charge for this examination.

WHAT OTHER ORANGE COUNTY PAPERS ARE SAYING EDITORIALY

Huntington Beach News: The overwhelming victory of the initiative and referendum amendment to the California constitution means that the people of this state cannot be bunched into the belief that they are less capable of making their own laws than the politicians whom they too often foolishly choose to represent in the state legislature.

Anaheim Gazette: The Gazette with this issue begins the forty-second year of its publication. It was established in 1870, when this section was sparsely settled, but the Pioneers demanded a newspaper, and the Gazette was established to meet the call for a weekly newspaper. Its patronage was exceedingly flattering from the start, and was never better than at the present moment. The Gazette is the oldest newspaper but one in Southern California. It has names upon its subscription books which have graced their pages since its initial number. To these as well as all others the publisher extends his thanks for their support, and promises to keep the paper abreast of the times in future as he has tried to maintain it during the past twenty-four years.

AT THE TEMPLE THEATER

The Coronation of King George V

—This marvelous production in moving pictures will be presented by Manager Doc Roberts for four nights only, beginning Thursday evening, October 19. There will be no matinee, and only one show each night. The following are some of the events you will witness in this forty days of magnificence:

Owing to the great length of the program some of the reels will be shown without intermission.

1. Review of troops (over 5000 troops in full dress regalia) return to palace. Return of royal family to Buckingham Palace. Canadian troops at Liverpool disembarking from transport and commencing march to encampment.

2. Royal drive.
3. London illuminated at night. (This is the first time in the world's history that colors have been photographed at night.)

4. Unveiling Queen Victoria's Memorial in front of Buckingham Palace. Ceremony shows King, the German Emperor, the Queen, Empress of Germany and all the ladies and gentlemen of the Royal Court.

5. Garter Investiture of the Prince of Wales, showing procession from Windsor Castle to St. George's Chapel and return. The dethroned King of Portugal (King Manuel) is plainly seen in this procession.

6. The complete Coronation procession in color, showing King George and Queen Mary at very close range.

7. Watch Dogs of the world—showing battleships of all the navies of the world.

MARVELOUS—Of course it is. All this is brought before your very eyes, in action and color, just as it happened. You don't have to "imagine" anything—you get the REAL. You see 49 days' ceremonies, 11,000 feet of film, in real natural colors, limited by Nature through the sunshine above. It is marvelous; it is wonderful; it is almost incredible. BUT—it is true. COME AND SEE.

Prices—Balcony, 15 cents; main floor, 25 cents; children 15 cents.

Ten Health Rules

1. Don't leave your rooms in the morning with an empty stomach.
2. Never expose yourself to cold air immediately after you have partaken of a warm liquid of any kind.
3. Don't leave your warm abode in cold weather with out warm wraps around your shoulders and breast.
4. Begin respiration in the cold by breathing through the nose. This will give the air a chance to get warm before reaching the lungs.
5. Never place your back near a heated oven, nor against a wall, warm or cold.
6. Don't stand before an open window or take a drive in an open carriage after violent exercise.
7. Don't remain motionless in a cold room, and do not stand in an open space on ice or snow.
8. Talk only when you must, for the old phrase, "speech is silver, silence is gold," holds good even in hygiene.
9. Don't put off your regular bath. When the skin is not kept fresh and soft, the cold draws the pores together, and you are rendered susceptible to pulmonary troubles of all kinds.
10. Don't retire with cold or wet feet. Nothing prevents sleep with so much certainty as the neglect of your pedal extremities.

TOMATO CROP HARVEST ON

Fullerton District Has 1000
Acres of the Product—
Prices Are Good

Fullerton Tribune: The harvesting of one thousand acres of tomatoes in the Fullerton district is now in full swing and the packing houses are a scene of an active campaign in disposal of the crop. The season will last till Christmas, barring frosts.

If the yield averages the same figure as last year of five tons to the acre the district will produce 5000 tons this year. The crop is, however, fully expected to exceed that tonnage though it is impossible at this time to make an estimate. Much depends on weather conditions.

The growers are receiving a much better price than last year, $25 per ton being the price paid by the packing houses at present. At this rate the value of an average crop would be between $125,000 and $150,000.

Ninety-five per cent of the crop will be taken by the California Vegetable Union, which is the largest local shipper of tomatoes. Most of the crop will go to eastern markets.

The California Vegetable Union is employing about thirty-five people at present in packing, while hundreds more are employed in the fields by the growers. Women are making from $15 to $18 per week in the packing houses.

The tomato is packed half ripe, or just turning, wrapped in paper, similar to oranges, and placed in small baskets which run four to the crate. A basket will hold about eighteen to twenty tomatoes. A car contains 750 crates or about 60,000 tomatoes.

Culls are sold to the canneries for $7.50 per ton. Many orange growers are growing tomatoes between the rows of trees. The vines are plowed under for fertilizer.

The tomato crop is generally a very profitable one and this season promises to be one of the very best.

Serious Injury
Clayton Conover, employed on well No. 3 on the Union's Bastanchury lease, lies in the Fullerton hospital with a broken leg and other injuries about the head and body as the result of an accident at the well Thursday.

That Conover did not meet instant death seems miraculous. The accident was witnessed by Joseph Reynolds, who was on the same shift.

In some way while they were lagging a belt wheel Conover was thrown into the belt and one leg went inside the belt round the wheel. The belt was a heavy rubber composition with no give, and two bones below the knee were broken.

BOY IN STREET HURT BY AUTO

Child Ran Out in Front of Machine—Bruised and Cut; Injuries Not Serious

Anaheim Gazette: Raymond Knox, not yet four years old, living with his mother, Mrs. A. W. Knox, at 427 South Los Angeles street, was run over but not seriously injured by an E.M.F. auto driven by a man who said he lived at Santa Ana on Sunday shortly before noon. The boy's hand was cut and his arm bruised. Both wheels went over him. He was playing in a sand pile in the street, when the auto approached. Had he remained where he was he would have escaped unhurt. Hearing the honk of the machine he started across the street. When the machine ran over him. The man stopped, returned to the scene of the accident and expressed sorrow. He did not give his name, and continued on his way to Pomona, saying he would return in the evening. In the auto beside the driver were four ladies, one of them being his wife.

Mrs. Knox ran out and picked up the child, whose cries attracted her attention while she was preparing dinner. The tot was covered with blood about the face, where the auto wheels had gashed a cut several inches in length. He complained of his head and arm hurting him. A physician was at once called. He found no bones broken, nor was it necessary to take any stitches in the wound in the head. It was a most providential escape.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock in the evening the auto party returned. The man's wife alighted and entered the house, asking for the little child. She carried him out to the machine, where the man generously handed him a quarter, telling him to buy candy with it.

Disturbed Burglar
Hearing a man attempting to enter the rear door of his furniture store on East Center street at 7:15 o'clock Wednesday evening of last week, Frank Nemetz proceeded thither, asking him what he wanted. The man ran down the alley, turning into Olive street and disappearing in the darkness. As he ran he called out that he was looking for a place to sleep. Nemetz went into the store, seized his revolver and ran out of the front door. He followed the burglar, but could find no trace of him.

Nemetz closed his store at 3:45 and went home for his evening meal. As he was on his way down town at 7:15 he opened the store to procure a letter. He heard the burglar at the rear door. As the man ran down the alley Nemetz called to him to stop, but the latter made off at a rapid pace.

The rear lock had been wrenched and a panel of the door jimmied off. He would probably have effected an entrance in a short time.

After Fakes
A well-attended meeting of local merchants was held at the library on Friday evening for the purpose of reorganizing the merchants' association recently merged into the board of trade. The meeting was rendered necessary by a multiplicity of fake advertising schemes, which local business houses having had lately to contend with, as well as for other purposes, including uniform hours for closing, holiday closing and protection of business men from credit maniacs.

J. Frederick Ahlborn was chosen president and Oscar Renner acted as secretary.

A committee consisting of H. A. Dickel, M. W. Martenet and W. P. Quarton was appointed to solicit all merchant, in town to become members of the association.

A committee on by-laws was appointed as follows: B. V. Beebe, Wm. Falkenstein and A. H. Wittman.

Committees will report at a meeting to be held at the library on Friday evening.

Advertising fakirs have become such a burden to business circles that it was resolved to organize for the protection of local merchants. All kinds of fakes are being worked, and all sorts of claims for circulation are made. In some instances merchants who refuse to advertise have been made the object of threats.

Spelling Bee of 71 Hours
Miss Margaret Patterson hesitated for an instant, then spelled "Sep-p-l-e-h-r-e." The two "p's" ended the longest spelling bee ever held in Missouri, for Miss Patterson sat down, leaving Miss Ruth Crenshaw, the winner, still standing.

The Pike County court house was filled with friends and relatives of the contestants, who for 17 hours, with only an occasional intermission, had withstood the bombardment of words until 10,000 had been given out. The contest was held under the supervision of the county school commissioner. It is estimated that of the 10,000 words assigned to the contestants the winner spelled 2500.—New York World.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

The feature of the market was the heavy receipts of prize-winning apples from the Watsonville apple show held last week. Among the arrivals were the Bellefleur and Red Pearmain varieties, which attracted considerable attention. The limited offerings of Colorado Gano apples were soon cleaned up at $2.25 a box. Apple arrivals were 13,463 boxes.

The market on various kinds of melons was active. The season on small cantaloupes is drawing to a close, and although the demand is not over heavy, prices have climbed back to $2.50 a crate for good stock. Casaba has also been bringing better figures, and the latest quotation is about $1.50 a crate. Watermelons are still plentiful, and averaging about 1 cent a pound.

A growing demand and light offerings strengthened the banana market and yesterday most of the stock sold at 4 1/2 cents a pound.

Cherries continued in good call, and dealers had no trouble in disposing of their holdings of fancy stock at $10 a barrel.

There was a noticeable scarcity of grape arrivals, and as a consequence prices stiffened on the Muscat and Tokay varieties. Muscats sold around 85 cents a lug box.

The potato market showed considerable improvement, and the market ruled firm under the revised figures. Arrivals were 4884 sacks.

Onions were heavily offered as low as $1.35. This was partly due to the fact that two more cars were received from the north, with total receipts of the day marketed at 600 sacks.

Sweet potato arrivals were 8 sacks. The call was only fair, and prices were accordingly weak.

There was a good call for new celery, which sold around $2 a crate. Tomato offerings were liberal, but good stock held firm around 50 cents a lug box.

Egg arrivals were 60 cases. The market continued firm under the light offering. Storage stock was in good call, and was reported as ruling firm.

Butter receipts were 40,635 pounds. The demand was good for most grades, the continued light offerings of creamery extras kept the market on this grade firm.

Cheese receipts were 312 pounds. The market ruled firm to steady on all lines. The call was for northern fresh, which jobbed freely at 15 cents f. o. b. Los Angeles. Bean arrivals were 322 sacks.

FOR CROSSING A FIRE-HOSE

Firemen Swear to Complaints
Three Warrants Out For Speeders

Members of the fire department are determined to let the public know that they will not stand having fire-hose crossed by vehicles. Last Tuesday morning a number of wagons and automobiles passed over a hose laid along West Chestnut avenue during the hay-stack fire back of W. W. Read's residence. This morning three warrants were issued by City Recorder Willson on complaint sworn to by two firemen, Fred Townner and Robert Squires. The warrants are for Roy Vincent, Paul W. Brandebury and B. H. Blances. Each of the three is accused of driving a delivery-wagon across the hose.

The damage that results to hose from being crossed is no mere fancy. When the hose is full of water under pressure it will easily cut, as anyone can see. But the greatest danger comes when the hose is not filled, as was the case Tuesday. The pressure may crack the inside rubber tube, and the break will not show on the covering. Later when the hose is playing on a fire the pressure may break through the outside covering.

Three for Speed
Warrants have been issued by City Recorder Willson for the arrest of W. A. Smith, A. H. Hays and M. W. Skinner on charges of speeding their automobiles. The machines were caught by Motorcycle Officer Davenport. Charles S. Kelly, manager of the Rowley Drug Co., was arrested. His machine was traveling nineteen miles an hour. Occupants of the automobile testified that Kelly was taking medicines in answer to an order from a physician. The city recorder dismissed the case.

What's The Matter With Santa Ana?

The following article appeared in a recent issue of the Los Angeles Tribune. It was clipped from that paper and sent to the Register, with the request that it be published in this paper:

SUMMONED TO AWAKE

Editor The Tribune: Santa Ana is a very pretty little city with upwards of 10,000 inhabitants. It is advantageously situated, being far enough from Los Angeles to make a trip to the latter city a real recreation. It is within a few miles of the seacoast and is connected with it by steam and electric lines, so that the inhabitants can enjoy all the pleasures of the beach at a moderate cost. The climate is the typical climate of sunny Southern California—never too hot nor too cold. It goes without saying that there is no healthier place on the Pacific slope. As a desirable place for desirable people, it offers inducements that no other town of its size in Southern California can duplicate. It has no saloons, no liquor serving hotels or restaurants, no slums, no poverty burdened class of people. It has unsurpassed schools, churches of about every denomination, and all the conveniences of a first class city, such as sewers, water, electric lights, etc.

Now it would seem that nothing can be the matter with a town possessing all the foregoing advantages. But there is something the matter with it. Of the hundred thousand tourists who annually visit California, mighty few include Santa Ana in their itinerary and fewer still locate here. I heard a tourist say on the street the other day that he would not stay over Sunday in Santa Ana "for the whole town." Why? Because there is no place in Santa Ana where a stranger accustomed to the best there is in life in the way of recreation and entertainment can pass an idle day in pleasurable comfort. There are no first class hotels. There is but one park—just big enough to turn around in—and if two families picnic there at the same time somebody's toes will be trampled on. That's what's the matter with Santa Ana—a sad lack of public spirit and "public enterprise." The town is growing—fine residences are going up all the time, but the builders are putting their money into them for their own enjoyment and giving small thought to the comfort and pleasure of visitors.

Look at Riverside, situated in a hole in the ground, away off from the seacoast, and with not a salubrious climate; she is the most beautiful town in Southern California and attracts thousands of wealthy visitors year in and year out. Why? Because she has a lot of public spirited citizens who have provided the things that visitors to Southern California come to see.

"It wasn't the guard, Maria, and he didn't say 'step lively!'" He said 'step lively, there, dang yez!'"

ARE TALKING OF CITY PLANT

Fullerton Trustees May Go
After Municipal System—
Sewage Disposal Up

Fullerton Tribune: A movement for a municipal water system for this city was launched Monday night when a petition signed by one hundred and twenty-five taxpayers was presented to the city trustees, asking the appointment of a committee to investigate the problem of available water supply and sites for a plant.

The trustees took prompt action in the premises by the appointment of Robert Meyers, P. A. Schumacher and C. A. Campbell as the committee with the powers requested in the petition. The committee will serve without pay and report the result of its investigations to the city trustees.

The city of Fullerton is at present served by the Fullerton Domestic Water Company, a private corporation. Some years ago there was a strong agitation for a municipal plant and also an effort made to have the city purchase the private company's plant. The matter has been discussed recently among the citizens, especially during the good roads bond campaign.

The present company has no franchise and the contract with the city expires with the next three years. These facts are the reasons why the movement has been started at this time, in order that the water question may be settled before it is necessary to make another contract. The city is paying the present company annually $800 for fire protection.

Sewerage Problem

The city is also confronted with the necessity of providing sewerage and with a view to investigating the feasibility of the outfall to the ocean proposed for Fullerton, the sugar factory, Anaheim and possibly Orange and Santa Ana. Trustees Welton and Hiltcher and Attorney Marks will meet Friday night with the Anaheim council and representatives of the sugar factory, when the proposition for an outfall to the ocean will be discussed. This is one of the most important steps taken in behalf of sanitary improvements for the three corporations concerned. The sugar factory is confronted with the problem of disposing of its supply waste water, which has been rather a nuisance to the neighborhood. The meeting of the trustees and the factory officials may result in some definite plan of co-operation which will render the sewerage problem easy of solution at less expense than if undertaken by each corporation independently.

Mad Dog Scare

On account of a mad dog scare in these parts the city marshal was instructed to remove the surplus of undesirable canines which may be found wandering abroad unclaimed, uncollared and uncanned. This is the season when Fido should keep within the shelter of the back porch.

The Real Thing

"Oh, Mary! Jim and Bill fought a duel over me!"
"How romantic. What happened?"
"It was terrible! I came into the room and those foolish boys were pointing big pistols at each other!"
"Pistols? Heavens! Were they loaded?"
"Not a bit. They were both sober."—Toledo Blade.

No Use

"This popular fiction is all rot. In real life the girl's father seldom objects to the man of her choice." You are wrong there. He often objects but he's usually too wise to say anything.
